What Is the Craft of Research?

The craft of research involves systematically gathering, analyzing, and presenting information to answer specific questions or solve problems. It emphasizes critical thinking, source evaluation, and ethical scholarship. When combined with the Chicago style, it ensures that your work adheres to well-established formatting, citation, and stylistic guidelines, thereby enhancing clarity and scholarly integrity.

Why Use the Chicago Manual of Style?

The Chicago Manual of Style (CMS) is one of the most widely used citation styles in the humanities and social sciences. It provides comprehensive instructions for:

- Document formatting
- Citation and bibliography styles
- Notes and bibliography system (NB)
- Author-date citation system

Adhering to CMS ensures your research is professionally presented and easily navigable by readers and reviewers.

Key Components of the Craft of Research Using Chicago Guides

1. Developing a Clear Research Question

A well-defined research question guides your entire project. It should be specific, focused, and researchable. For example:

- Instead of: "What is climate change?"
- Use: "How have urban green spaces impacted local climate resilience in Chicago from 2000 to 2020?"

This specificity helps in narrowing your scope and identifying relevant sources.

2. Conducting Ethical and Effective Research

Ethical research entails:

- Properly attributing sources
- Avoiding plagiarism
- Ensuring data accuracy

Effective research involves consulting reputable sources such as academic journals, books, government reports, and archival materials.

3. Organizing Your Research

An organized approach includes:

- Creating a research plan or outline

Chicago style offers two main citation systems:

- Notes and Bibliography (NB): Common in humanities; uses footnotes or endnotes supplemented by a bibliography.
- Author-Date: Preferred in sciences; uses parenthetical citations within the text and a reference list.

For example, a book citation in NB style:

John Doe, Research Methods in Social Sciences (Chicago: University Press, 2018), 45.

And in author-date style:

(Doe 2018, 45)

3. Formatting and Style Considerations

Ensure your document follows Chicago guidelines:

- 12-point Times New Roman or similar font
